

Have you considered?

Have you considered who made the world?
The fine detail, the intricate plan
Have you considered who made the lazy mountains and the restless sea?
Have you considered the path of the sun and the seasons that roll,
The buds that open and the leaves that fall
Do you know it was all made for you and me?

Have you considered who frustrates this plan?
Starvation and earthquake to name but a few
Have you considered who created the germ to cripple a child for a full term?
Have you considered the hate that abounds,
The lust that craves, the bombs that destroy?
Do you know it was all meant to fool you and me.

Have you considered how Isaiah foretold centuries before the birth of a child?
Have you considered why Jesus risked a life so precious and only did good?
Have you considered the guilt was not His,
But He said "set them free, rather kill me".
Do you not see, He died for you and for me?

Have you considered where you belong, on whose side you are on?
Do you love or do you hate?
Do you have joy or weep within?
Have you got peace or do you churn?
You see you can't smile and frown at the same time.
You have to choose, whose side are you on?
